Railroad Service Improving About Bay; Strikers Return

The tie-up caused by the walkout of switchmen and yardmen in the yards of the Southern Pacific Company, Western Pacific and Santa Fe railroad companies has improved locally, according to reports from railroad officials this morning. The Southern Pacific reported the most progress since yesterday. Many of the strikers have returned to work, say the officials, and others are returning every day, despite the declaration of the strike leaders that "the insurgents are standing pat." New men have been employed and, according to the officials, the situation in the yards is again near normal. Freight is moving and all passenger trains are running on schedule.

The Western Pacific and Santa Fe roads reported conditions had improved over yesterday. Freight in both yards is moving slowly. It is thought by the officials that men's association in the bay district claim there have been no breaks in their ranks and that men being put to work are not from their associations.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—With freight service rapidly approaching normal in this district, railroad officials today declared that they had the strike situation completely in hand. At the same time it was claimed by the insurgents' organization that all of the 300 yardmen and switchmen who walked out in this district are "still out and will stay out." Brotherhood chiefs, however, declared the strikers were gradually going back.

City Commissioners Reply To Charges in Recall

The text of the answers of Commissioners Morse, Edwards and Soderberg to recall charges, a summary of which appeared in last night's TRIBUNE, follows:

EDWARDS' STATEMENT.

Important to voters: Do not sign this recall petition; it is false and malicious. The person asking you to sign it is paid to secure your signature. It will cost taxpayers $50,000 for recall elections.

Vice interests are spending thousands to secure control of our government.

I was elected to a second term by the largest majority ever given a candidate in Oakland upon a platform of business, not politics, convincing me that taxpayers desire business administration.

I reduced city expenses consistently and fearlessly, eliminating every unnecessary or inefficient employee from the city payroll, working every way consistent with efficient and good government to reduce the people's excessive tax burden.

I gave Oakland a scientific budget regardless of saloon or vice revenue.

I conducted the finance department at annual savings of $15,000. Changing me to the street department where nearly a million dollars has been spent yearly will mean $150,000 annual saving at least in the tax rate and give greater efficiency than I shall run that department also in the interest of the taxpayer and not the tax rate.

I voted always and conscientiously against vice interests.

Naturally I have incurred, for my lasting displeasure of job chasers, politicians and vice interests.

If you believe an honest, faithful public official should serve his full term without disgrace of recall vote no on the ballot.

MORSE'S ANSWER.

This recall directed against me shows how easily corrupt interests can use a well-intentioned man for their own vicious purpose.

Since I have been commissioner of Oakland I have been abidingly faithful to every public trust, independent, fair and fearless, and yet am not in the position of receiving charges which are mere generalities, absolutely devoid of truth.

They are made up of a former Chief of Police Peterson only to cloud the real issue.

These questions should be seriously considered.

Shall I be recalled so that Peterson may be put back as chief of police?

Shall Oakland again be the headquarters of a lawless mob, for bank men and gamblers as under the Peterson regime?

Why should I save five interests be willing to hire tools to file recall charges and then hire solicitors at high wages to save Peterson his small salary?

How do they get this money back?

What must be done to save Peterson?

I have been a consistent supporter of civil service principles and an ardent advocate of civil service whenever it can be operated without the control of subversive and corrupt influences.

SODERBERG'S REPLY.

Important: Read this.

The charges are false and malicious. The real issue is shall taxpayers spend $45,000 on recall elections to make Peterson chief of police?

Edwards, Morse and Soderberg are engaged in driving out graft, corruption and incompetency from the city hall.

The Union Construction Company is one of several firms which have been instrumental in locating on our waterfront, the industries I have discouraged are vice, bawdy games, gambling and graft.

To stop thievery and mismanagement in the street department and to again place it on a business basis, it was necessary to change the chief of police.

These charges were never denied.

I have sacrificed my own business in order to give an honest and efficient man to the city's business. I have rendered loyal, faithful service.

I have eliminated graft from the Auditorium, increased its revenues and decreased maintenance costs.

While commissioners of the streets I reduced yearly operation costs 29 per cent with increased efficiency.

I bought Liberty Bonds every issue, contributed to every war activity and received commendatory letters from bond campaign managers for my personal assistance.

If you approve of my policy of honesty, efficiency and economy in city affairs, vote no on this recall.

COMMISSIONERS' REPLY.

A statement was issued this morning by the recall committee in response to the official answers.

According to Preston Higgins, secretary, the committee plans to ask City Clerk at once for the appointment of verification deputies and the necessary petition, to be circulated at once for signatures. Higgins stated that only 550 signatures are required and not 650. The candidates, Higgins says, will be announced tomorrow or early next week. The statement was in part as follows:

Commissioner Morse attempted to side-track the issue by dragging in the name of a former Chief of Police. The Citizens' Committee and the candidates, whose names will be announced very shortly, are not interested in the least. Commissioner Soderberg makes the sympathetic plea that he has sacrificed his profession in order to give his time to the city's business. He did not mention this when he sought election from the people and he should not now hold it out for the justification of the Citizens' Committee and our candidates are not interested in the least.

the Citizens' Committee and our candidates are taking such a decided stand on this question that Mr. Morse will have to present more definite justification for his public duty.

Commissioner Edwards, after publicly stating that he welcomed going before the people, introduces his answer with a pitiful plea for people to refrain from signing this petition, which will call him to stand or fall by his record of incompetency. Mr. Edwards said that the recall deputies will be paid for their work. Many of the leading men and women of this city have already volunteered to take out the petition.

Commissioner Soderberg introduces his answer by a false statement of what constitutes the election cost and trails with his colleagues in side-stepping the charges by supplanting a reference to the former Chief of Police Peterson, whom the Citizens' Committee and our candidates are not interested in the least.

Average Man Pays Too Little Attention to the Care of the Hair and Scalp

Prof. John H. Austin over 40 years a bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist, who now has office at The Owl Drug Store, 14th and Washington, points out some of the reasons for an increase in baldness among men.

Prof. Austin is probably right in saying that about one man in every hundred over thinks about his hair at all, except to comb it two or three times a day. If it falls out he looks anxiously at the falling hair and then promptly forgets it until the next time he uses a comb.

A man will give the utmost attention to his teeth, because he knows that when they trouble him, he will have more trouble and probably lose his teeth if he doesn't go to a dentist promptly. But his hair doesn't ache, it just gradually dies, and when it is nearly gone, and the roots are dead, he anxiously tries a dozen different remedies at once and then resigns himself to baldness.

Prof. Austin says the use of dermatitis cure, mange cure and hair tonics is like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure. The particular trouble with which your scalp is afflicted must be known before it can be intelligently treated.

PIERCE ARROW "The First Fifty"

TRUCK NO. 46.

When James T. Murray of Troy, N.Y., and contractor purchased Pierce Arrow truck No. 16 in the summer of 1911, there were twelve five-ton trucks of other makes in that city. Today the Pierce Arrow truck is the only one in existence. The others failed to survive.

Truck No. 46 has traveled more than 15,000 miles to date, yet its original mechanism, with the exception of frame members, is intact, including the worm gears.

The five-tonner was purchased to displace six teams of horses working 12 hours a day. It was used for a long time on a contract, hauling four five-ton loads of crushed stone on an 18-mile round trip. It has had three overhauls.

Mr. Murray now owns five Pierce Arrow trucks.

First Fifty Booklet can be had on application.

Oh! my back!

OUCH! HOW IT PAINS! "OH, IT'S THERE!"

Right Across Small of the Back or Over the Kidneys" LUMBAGO, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, SWOLLEN AND PAINFUL FEET

Due to Faulty Kidney Elimination

All signals of distress. The kidneys have too much work to perform. Uric acid accumulates in the system in the form of urate salts. Obtain at your nearest drug store that newest discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called "Anuric" (anti-uric-acid). "Anuric" is more potent than lithia and dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar. The best kidney remedy known.

San Francisco, Cal.—"I have used Doctor Pierce's remedies in my family for fifteen years and have found on every occasion that they gave satisfactory results. Recently I was troubled with my kidneys and my back constantly pained me. I took three packages of Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets which removed all pain and cleared up conditions. I advise every one to give Doctor Pierce's remedies a fair trial."—MRS. E. EVE, 422 Brannon St.

I take
Dodson's Liver Tone
when headachy
sick, or bilious

CALOMEL

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children, too.

Legion Sticks by Barrows; Won't Accept Resignation

David P. Barrows' tentative offer to resign as state commander of the American Legion has been refused by the sub-committee of the state executive committee, which met yesterday evening in San Francisco to consider the situation created by several posts in condemning Barrows' stand on the bonus question and demanding his resignation.

The committee endorsed the Legion's bonus plan but held that written opposition by Barrows was merely an expression of personal views not intended to commit the organization.

Barrows made the statement that if his personal views were a hindrance to the plan of the Legion, he believed the Legion should have another state commander.

The committee has issued the following statement:

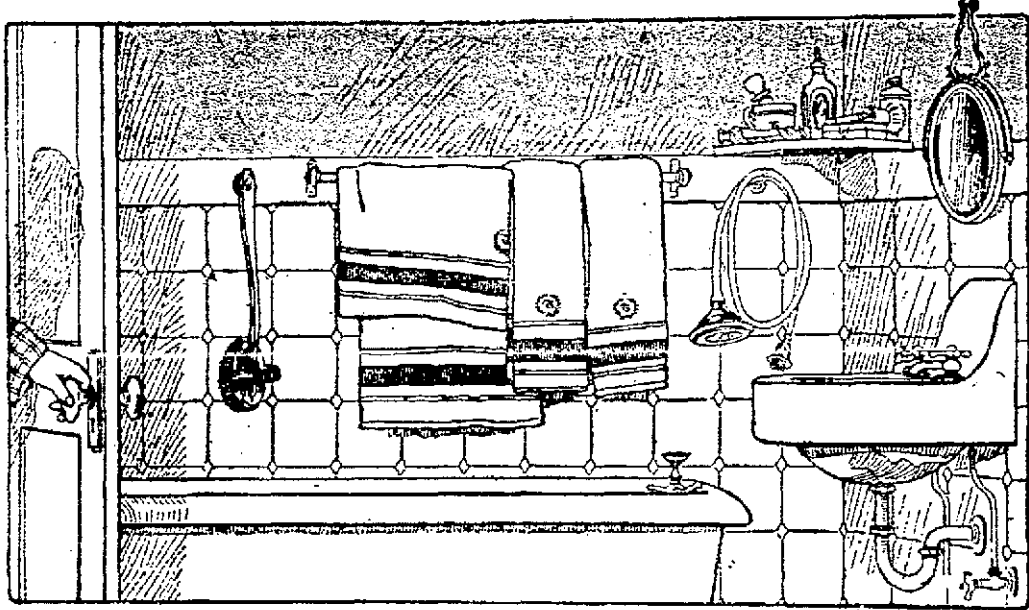

"It is the sense of this committee after due consideration of the actions of the several posts with regard to the article of the bonus question, published in the first issue of The California Legion Monthly, under the authorship of Commander Barrows, that this committee reaffirms the actions of the state convention, state executive and national executive committees in endorsing adjusted compensation, and that it recognizes that the article referred to was the personal opinion of Commander Barrows, intended for the information of the members of the American Legion as to his own personal views on the subject; that it was not intended to be an official expression of the attitude of the Legion and further was not intended as a commitment of the state executive committee to those views, and that this committee expresses its confidence in Dr. David P. Barrows as department commander."

MO. HENDY Story a day

"Girl"

In all letters on the ground glass of the door of room No. 262 were the words: "Robbins & Hartley, brokers." The clerk had gone. It was past 5, and with the solid tramp of a drove of prize Percherons, scrub-women were invading the cloud-rapped twenty-story office building. A puff of red-hot air flavored with lemon peelings, soft-coal smoke and train oil came in through the half-open windows.

Robbins, 48, something of an overweight beau, and addicted to first nights and hotel palm-rooms, pretended to be envious of his partner's competitor's joys.

"Going to be something doing in the humidity line tonight," he said. "You out-of-town chaps will be the ones to get it." Hartley, 29, serious, thin, good-looking, nervous, sighed and frowned a little.

"Yes," said he. "We always have cool nights in Floraburst, especially in the winter."

A man with an air of mystery came in the door and went up to Hartley.

"I've found where she lives," he announced in a portentous half-whisper that makes the detective at a guess as to what he is following.

Hartley scowled him into a state of dramatic silence and quietude. But just then Robbins had cut his cane and set his toe pin to his skin, and with a debonair nod went out to his metropolitan amusements.

"Here is the address," said the detective in a natural tone, being deprived of an audience to foil.

Hartley took the leaf torn out of the sleuth's dinner memorandum book. On it were penciled the words "Vivienne Arlington, No. 341 East 12th street, care of Mrs. McCormus."

"Moved there a week ago," said the detective. "Now, if you want any shadowing done, Mr. Hartley, I can do you as fine a job in that line as anybody in the city. It will be only $7 a day and expenses. Can send in a daily typewritten report covering it."

"You needn't go on," interrupted the broker. "It isn't a case of that kind. I merely wanted the address. Now much shall I pay you for that line as anybody in the city. It will be only $7 a day and expenses. Can send in a daily typewritten report covering it."

"A tanner will cover it," Hartley said. "The man and woman who were in the office and 'hardened a Broadway' at the first large cross-town artery of travel he took an eastbound car that deposited him in a decaying avenue, where ancient structures were shrouded in the pride and glory of the lawn."

"Moved there a week ago," said the detective.

of the purest Saxon type. Her hair was a ruddy golden, each filament of the neatly gathered mass shining with its own luster and delicate gradation of color. In perfect harmony with her long, straight, oval face and deep sea-blue eyes that looked upon the world with the innocent calmness of a mountain lake, the pale of an unadorned modern gown. Her frame was strong and yet possessed the grace of absolute naturalness. And yet with all her northern clearness and truthfulness of line and coloring, there seemed to be something of the tropics in her—something of languor in the deep of her pose, of loss of ease in her magnificent composure of satisfaction and comfort in no mere act of breathing something that seemed to claim for her a right as a perfect work of nature to exist, and he admired equally with a rare flower or some beautiful milk-white dove among its sister-lilies companions.

"Vivienne," said Hartley, looking at her pleadingly. "You did not answer my last letter. It was only a week's search that I found where you had moved to. Why have you kept me in suspense when you knew how anxiously I was waiting to see you and hear from you?"

"The girl looked out the window dreamily.

"Mr. Hartley," she said hesitatingly. "I hardly know what to say to you. I realize all the advantages of your offer and sometimes I feel sure that I could be contented with you. But, again, I am doubtful. I was born a city girl, and I am afraid to bind myself to a quiet suburban life."

"My dear girl," said Hartley, ardently, "have I not told you that you shall have everything that your heart can desire that is in my power to give you? You shall come to the city for the theaters, for shopping, and to visit your friends as often as you care to. You can trust me, can you not?"

"To the fullest," she said, turning her frank eyes upon him with a smile. "I know you are the kindest of men, and that the girl you get will be a lucky one. I learned all about you when I was at the Montgomerys."

"Ah!" exclaimed Hartley, with a tender, reminiscent light in his eye. "I remember well the evening I first saw you at the Montgomerys. Mrs. Montgomery was sending your promises to me all the evening. And she hardly did you justice. I shall never forget that supper. Come, Vivienne, promise me. I want you. You'll never regret coming with me. No one else will ever give you as pleasant a home."

The girl sighed and looked down at her folded hands.

A sudden, jealous suspicion seized Hartley.

"Tell me, Vivienne," he asked, reproachfully. "Is there another—somebody else?"

A red flush crept slowly over her cheeks and neck.

"You shouldn't ask that, Mr. Hartley," she said in some confusion. "But I will tell you. There is one other—but he has no right—I have promised him nothing."

"His name?" demanded Hartley, sternly.

"Townsend."

"Hartford Townsend?" exclaimed Hartley, with a grim tightening of his jaw.

"How did that man come to know you?" After all I've done for him.

"His auto has just stopped here," said Vivienne, bending over the windowsill. "He's coming for his answer. Oh, I don't know what to do."

The bell in the flat kitchen chimed. Vivienne hurried to answer the latch button.

"Stay here," said Hartley. "I will meet him in the hall."

Townsend, looking like a Spanish grandee in his light tweeds, Panama hat and curling black mustache, came up the stairs three at a time. He stopped at sight of Hartley and looked foolish.

"Go back," said Hartley, firmly, pointing downstairs with his forefinger.

"Hullo," said Townsend, feigning surprise. "What's up? What are you doing here, old man?"

"Go back," repeated Hartley, inflexibly. "The Law of the Jungle. Do you want the Pack to tear you in pieces? The kill is mine."

"I came here to see a plumber about the bathroom connections," said Townsend, bravely.

"All right," said Hartley. "You shall have that plumber to stick upon your traitorous suit. But, go back."

Townsend went downstairs, leaving a bitter word to be wafted up the draught in the staircase. Hartley went back to his room.

"Vivienne," said he masterfully. "I have got to have you. I will take no more refusals or dilly-dallying."

"When do you want me?" she asked.

"Now. As soon as you can get ready."

She stood calmly before him and looked him in the eye.

"Do you think for one moment," she said, "that I would enter your home while Heloise is there?"

Hartley cringed as if from an unexpected blow. He folded his arms and paced the carpet once or twice.

"She shall go," he declared grimly. "Drop stood upon his brow. 'Who should I tell her Heloise is there?' 'The insufferable! Never have I seen one day of freedom from trouble since I have known her. You are right, Vivienne. Heloise must be sent away before I can take you home. But she shall go. I have decided. I will turn her from my doors.'

"When will you do this?" asked the girl.

Hartley clenched his teeth and bent his brows together.

"Tonight," he said, resolutely. "I will send her away tonight."

U. S. Plans Action in Coast Fishing Case

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Japanese aliens are violating the fishing laws on the Pacific Coast and thereby prejudicing American businessmen interested in that industry, it was said today at the Department of Justice. The complaints probably will be called to the attention of the Japanese ambassador. The most serious complaint taken up by the attorney-general involves the operations of nearly 1000 Japanese aliens carrying on alleged illegal fishing operations around San Pedro Islands. Senator Pheasant of California has urged that the Japanese government be urged to act to prevent these practices.

PIONEER WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Matilda Brown, pioneer resident of this city, known throughout California for her philanthropic efforts, died this morning at 2 o'clock at her home, 600 Twenty-ninth street. She is survived by two sons and three daughters—Judge Everett J. Brown of the superior court in Alameda county, David Brown, Miss Matilda Brown, Miss Annie Florence Brown and Mrs. Richard Harding. She was a sister of Mrs. William Moller, Dr. Lillian Delger Powers and Edward F. Delger. Her death followed a critical illness of five months.

As state president of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons, and president of the King's Daughters' Home for incurables in this city, Mrs. Brown has been prominent in relief work. She has been executive of the Broadway institution for many years, seeing it develop from a small beginning to its present importance. She was among the active workers of the Pablosa Hospital Association and other organizations.

Mrs. Brown was born in New York in 1849. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Delger, arrived in San Francisco in 1853, coming by way of Cape Horn. Her education was finished in Miss Blake's Seminary in this city. Following her marriage in 1869 to Captain John W. Brown, she resided in Yokohama, Japan, for eleven years, where her six children were born. Upon the death of her husband and a son she returned to Oakland to make her permanent home.

The several departments of the superior court of Alameda county adjourned at noon today in respect to Judge Everett J. Brown, son of the late Mrs. Matilda Brown.

Lighting Cigarette Burns Six to Death

NEW IBERIA, La., April 16.—Six men were burned to death at the bottom of a 90-foot shaft on the former estate of the late Joseph Jefferson near here yesterday when one of them struck a match to light a cigarette, igniting gas fumes.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble. Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion." Gas in the stomach is dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to ulcer, accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas and wind, which hamper the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the entire system. It is the worst of folly to neglect with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and flat right out of the system, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no soreness or pain. Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Advertisement.

Took a Severe Cold. "Our five-year-old son Paul took a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor gave us a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it, and the first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured," writes Mrs. Frank Crocker, Para, Ill. For sale by Oakland Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

WIFE CHARGED WITH SLAYING

"It is all a horrible mistake. I can't help thinking I'll wake up soon and find that it is all just a terrible nightmare," sobbed Mrs. Emma Freitas, 21, who is said to have shot her husband last Saturday night when she was arraigned in court this morning on a charge of murder.

When the formal charge of murder was read to her in court she became hysterical.

"I won't believe that he is dead," cried Mrs. Freitas. "I can't remember anything about the shooting. All I know is that I couldn't stand the thought of him going to another woman."

Caire, 303 Lee street, Oakland, who was excused from further duty on a federal jury today after he had expressed unqualified opposition to the prohibition law, and Gus Gilloman, a restaurant proprietor, went to trial before the jury after a majority of the members had expressed a belief that coincided in varying degrees with Caire's.

Caire was being examined by Assistant United States Attorney Wilford Tully and replied that he did not believe in prohibition. He then was challenged for cause.

Huber, an Oakland boy who was killed in action near Soissons on July 18, 1918, while serving with Company K of the Eighteenth Infantry, a part of the famous First Division. The certificate of merit was issued from the headquarters of the First Division as a citation.

ANITA WHITNEY DENIED ROSTRUM

Miss Charlotte Anita Whitney, convicted of criminal syndicalism in Oakland, now out on bail, was not allowed to speak last night at a public meeting of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society in Los Angeles by the police. District Attorney Woolwine asked Chief of Police Home to prevent the Whitney woman talking in public gatherings. Woolwine said that he understood Miss Whitney was released with the understanding that she would not make public talks.

WOMAN DRAWS FIRE OF COURT

"If you weren't a woman I'd send you to jail. Remain in my chambers until you are ready to answer my question," said Superior Judge T. W. Harris when Miss May Alameda failed to respond to his query if John Alameda, restaurant proprietor at 1735 Alameda avenue, had asked her to testify for him in the divorce action brought by Mrs. Mabel Colacet, who claimed her husband abused her and wanted her to work in the restaurant during the day and do the family washing at night.

After she had remained in the judge's chambers for nearly an hour, Miss Alameda declared Mrs. Colacet had told her she would give her four shirt waists if she would testify for her but she refused. She said she had heard Mrs. Colacet call her husband names but had never heard Colacet apply epithets to his wife, as charged. Judge Harris denied the divorce on the ground that there was not sufficient corroborative evidence.

SISTER ACCUSED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Naming Barbara Kemmerle, 1739 Sacramento street, San Francisco, her own sister, Mrs. J. P. K. Brown has filed suit for divorce against John Brown, a painter, although living under the same roof at 720 Twenty-first street, Oakland. Mrs. Brown states that she separated from her husband in August, 1919. She asks for $50 a month alimony and custody of two children, Alice aged 11, and Frank, aged 10. They were married in Monterey on January 22, 1908.

Mrs. Brown declares she learned that her husband had been friendly with her sister at the San Francisco address in 1917 and that he wrote her a letter acknowledging this but later regretted writing the letter and violently seized her in an attempt to take the letter from her.

New School Sites Discussed by Board

Further steps towards the acquisition of additional sites for new school buildings were taken last night at a meeting of the building program committee of the board of education and the citizens' bond expenditure committee. In addition to the site already purchased for the new Santa Fe junior high school, options have now been secured on eight additional new sites.

At the request of a number of prominent real estate men, the two committees last night decided that in future appraisals of all property shall be made with the assistance of a committee of real estate men. It is expected that the purchase of another site will be completed by the meeting next Thursday night.

Passing Show
IS RIOT OF FUN

Making good a promise to eliminate no detail of the famous Winter Garden attraction, "The Passing Show," a triumph in scene, shape and sumptuousness opened at the Liberty Theater last night for the three-day engagement in what is the largest and most pretentious production of its kind ever seen in Oakland.

With close to a hundred girls, fifteen scenes, a half dozen comedians and a large orchestra all its own the "Passing Show" fairly bewilders by the generosity of its offerings. It is a combination of cabaret, vaudeville and jazz in which one number follows another at so rapid a pace that there is no time for encores.

Eugene and Willie Howard, the leading comedians, forced a break in this orderliness of succession whenever they appeared. Roy Cummings wrestles with a drop curtain and falls into the orchestra pit in the excitement of a hilarious number he puts on with Miss Emily Miles, and every service man in the house stamps applause for John Burke, who is given ten minutes all to himself with a comedy turn. In addition there are other comedians of attainment.

WIFE RESENTED HIS KISSES, MAN GIVEN DIVORCE

Mrs. Amy Fingerson was so seldom at home that her own children did not know her and one of them, Robert, aged 2, once said to his father when the mother came home: "Daddy, who is that woman?" according to testimony given by Lloyd Fingerson in his suit for a divorce before Judge T. W. Harris.

When he attempted to caress her she said: "Why don't you go and love someone else?" Fingerson told the court he got an introductory divorce and the custody of two children.

More Workers Help in $35,000 Campaign

An increased force of workers has entered the Oakland Community Service campaign to raise $35,000 by tomorrow night and Chairman Herman T. Johnson states that he feels assured of success. The work was appreciably delayed during the last two days owing to the storm. A meeting of the workers was held at noon today in the Hotel Oakland, at which time Johnson conferred with the workers.

The hunt in the Tower of London was anciently the depository for merchants' cash.

Talks on Kellogg's Krumbles

NUMBER SIX
by Alfred W. McCann
Food Expert, N. Y. Globe

The medical profession needs no more evidence to convince it that when man denatures his food by refining processes he destroys its ability to confer upon him immunity to disease.

Snow white breakfast foods consist chiefly of starch. Like snow white bread, they have been de-vitalized. Their bone-building lime is gone.

Their nerve-nourishing phosphorus is gone. Their red-corpuscle energizer, iron, is gone. Their tissue-sweetening potassium is gone.

Twelve bio-chemic salts, elaborated from mother earth and stored away in the seeds of grass, wheat and corn, are sifted out, boiled out, scoured out and beaten out before the demineralized stuff gets to the breakfast table.

The "innocent" dish served to the groaning child, the expectant mother, the nursing mother, the convalescent struggling desperately out of an abyss of distress, is a sham, a cheat. It will not support life. The supports have been kicked from under.

No wonder white bread is called the broken staff of life. No wonder men like Moore, Gautier, Mouriquand, Eddie Simpson, Wells, Ballard and scores of others urge the daily use of whole wheat bread, milk, fresh vegetables, fruits and grains.

These are the salt-carrying foods, the tissue-sweetening, growth-controlling, health-protecting substances that develop resistance to disease. Without them we are seventy-five percenters, fifty percenters.

Some of us, deprived too long of the necessities of life, are ten percenters, active in wheel-chairs.

My job for twelve years has been to tell these truths to as many people as I have been able to reach. It has been a slow movement, but now W. K. Kellogg comes along with Krumbles and buys a lot of white space to put truth into.

He pays the bill and I try to show you why you should substitute Krumbles in the place of some silly, anemic, impoverished breakfast food. It has the best part, not the "whitest" part, of the wheat in it.

It comes nearer to whole wheat bread in substance than any other patented breakfast food I know of, and its superiority in this respect, marks an advance towards breakfast food decency.

Manufacturers' Note: Buy a package of Krumbles of your grocer. Eat all you want. If you are not pleased with it, you can have your money back. We know you will join the thousands of others who like Krumbles better than any other breakfast food. For reasons described above by Mr. McCann.

ARREST FOLLOWS ROW OVER RENT

J. Hyman of 1241 Chestnut street, and his son-in-law, J. Dorfman, 1068 Tenth street, were treated at the Emergency Hospital last night for injuries they claimed to have received at the hands of F. M. Reed, 1018 Linden street.

The report made to Inspectors Lew Agnew and Frank Neils was that Reed assaulted them with a revolver when he resented Dorfman's notification that Reed's house rent was to be raised. Reed, it is claimed, declared that the house, owned by Dorfman, was in need of repairs and was not worth higher rent.

Reed was arrested.

There's a Better Coffee That Always Tastes the Same
Make a Test and See

We offer you a brand of coffee that's changeless—it brings you a flavor that's the same in every can, sealed in a vacuum-packed container.

All you do is keep the pot clean and make the coffee in the same way daily to get uniform results.

We make a special claim to this feature in "Folger's Golden Gate" Coffee, so you may expect uniformity.

The world's best raw coffees vary in flavor. That is a difficulty all blenders must meet. Some roasters don't take proper care. So their "finished" product in twenty different cans may bring you twenty different flavors.

We employ blenders and roasters who have the skill of artistry. We submit endless samples of coffee, to expert tasters. They match every lot of "Folger's Golden Gate" with the lot before. Thus we make sure that our coffee will treat you in the same way daily if you treat it the same.

If the pot is clean and you use the same method this coffee cannot fail.

Expect It To Be Different—For It Is

Look for a flavor that is better, different—in the first can that you use. Then look for that same flavor in all cans that come thereafter.

Learn what it means to have uniform coffee. Get a package from your grocer now.

CALIFORNIA AND STANFORD ATHLETES MEET TOMORROW

VALLEY LEAGUE MANAGERS ARE PLANNING A WHOLESALE RAID ON COAST LEAGUE PLAYERS

BALDWIN AND STEEN ARE IN TOWN SEEKING P. C. L. BALL TOSSERS

By EDDIE MURPHY.

A few hours after The TRIBUNE came out yesterday morning with a story that several players in the Coast League would jump to the San Joaquin Valley League, along came the first announcement from Earl (Gunner) Larkin that he was to leave the Sacramento pitching staff to accept a job with the Madera Club which is in the northern section of the San Joaquin Valley League. Larkin's action immediately made him an outlaw to organized baseball and immediately put the managers of the eight clubs in the Coast League on their guard against other players jumping away from the clubs by the big offers of the valley managers. Larkin being the first one to make the jump from the Coast League means that he will be the big "Goat" for any move that the Coast League managers take to prevent players jumping the league.

J. C. Ewing, president of the Oaks and President Doc Strub and Manager Charles Graham of the Seals issued a warning last night about any of their players now on the club jumping to the Valley as any other outlaw league. Cal Ewing says that any player who leaves the club to accept an outlaw offer might as well come home and join the "Goats" for good as there is a club in organized ball that classes every contract jumper as a "Goat."

Cal Ewing and Doc Strub issue warning to Players

Managers of the Coast League are a bit worried over the presence of Earl (Gunner) Larkin in the north section of the league. Larkin came to land in the Valley as a ready-made pitcher for the Madera Club, another outlaw organization, before Baldwin could locate him. So now Larkin is in the Valley as a ready-made pitcher just as good as Larkin and we would like to know where he will get his pitch without tampering with Coast League players. Baldwin made a trip to San Francisco and admitted that it was for the purpose of locating a pitcher. That all means that Charles Graham, manager of the Seals, will be a bit worried about his pitching staff until Baldwin returns to Hanford.

The Seals manager is looking for a good catcher and infielder. He has such a good reputation at Hanford that he has given up his position at Pittsburgh (Cal.). The Seals manager is looking for a catcher for the Oaks a couple of seasons ago rather than giving him to the Seals. Baldwin and McAuley are not outlaws are not being classified as an outlaw because he is playing in the Valley league. For Earl has not been classified as an outlaw because he is playing in the Valley league. Baldwin and Graham couldn't come to an understanding about the catcher's salary and didn't sign him in 1919 when he was in a bad jam because he signed one, Jimmy McAuley, who is holding out because he loved to play for the Seals. The manager McAuley could talk him into doing so.

The northern section of the Valley league is having trouble starting and players joining these clubs are not as numerous as in the south. The southern division, which includes Visalia, Hanford, Fresno, and Madera, is having trouble starting and players joining these clubs are not as numerous as in the south. The southern division, which includes Visalia, Hanford, Fresno, and Madera, is having trouble starting and players joining these clubs are not as numerous as in the south.

JOLTS HOOKS & UPPER CUTS

By BOB SHAND

Merley Denny who, with Earl Zimmerman, was chased out of the ring at the Auditorium the other night, is not a bit sore at the action of the referee, rather he is only making a vain effort to thank the third man in the ring.

Merley dropped into the box of his manager, who was sitting in the crowd.

"Don't come back!" around here again! "Don't come back!" around here again! "Don't come back!" around here again!

"I ain't going to do no backin'!" was the reply. "I'm going out to get a good job and have my money and when I come back I'll be a champion!"

"Was you scared for Zimmerman or something?" asked Simpson. "If I wasn't scared I was something mighty like I was the candidate of the little four-rounder."

They told me that Zimmerman was used to kill them with a straight left and when he started after me and was using his right hand I was scared. He was scared of me.

Merley was being chattering to by the crowd and he was giving him a terrible carping of pity. Merley was being chattering to by the crowd and he was giving him a terrible carping of pity.

DOPESTERS FIGURE BLUE AND GOLD TO CAPTURE TRACK MEET

By DOUG MONTELL

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 16.—A day before the Stanford-California track meet and everything tops to a day of sport in which California will be victorious. The Bruins are the favorites to win the annual track and field meet. The track entries of the two institutions were doled out yesterday and California appeared to be the favorite by a score of about 50-27 in the track events.

As to the field events, California and Stanford each claim about half of these. Stanford appears to be strongest in the high jump. The pole vault is their second source of strength and the discus is their third claimed event. California has the leading broad jumpers and some very good javelin men. The shot-put is unquestioned a California event.

In the high jump Stanford has Dick Tompkins, Norman Green, Weaver and Heath, all six-foot jumpers. Tompkins is the most consistent, and while the others have been the winners in the seasons' meets, he is figured to win out in competition tomorrow. Weaver has been a very steady man and is hoped to take second. Green and Heath of Stanford and Cottrell of California are figured to battle for the third place. The home seems to indicate that the event will go to Stanford 3-1 certainly if not 4-0. A slip on the part of Stanford's athletes or unexpected things from Cottrell can only change this result.

THE SHOT PUT As to the shot put, Court Majors of California can easily be picked as the logical winner. A consistent 41-foot putter all season, he is better by three feet than any Stanford man. Jack Merchant of California with 40 feet ranks a good second in line of choice. Stanford may get a place in the event if Hanner, Tanner, Flowers and Adams of these men are picked as better men than Green, who does 32 feet 7 at Stanford, sometimes. The event at the meet will be a close one. Still we might figure once optimistically from a Stanford view point and allow Wilcox the edge with Cottrell of California second and Green of Stanford third. Stanford can hardly hope for better than 6-3 out of the event and their two men will have to do as good as they have done on the farm tomorrow to win that many points.

The broad jump, the scene of last year's catastrophe for the Bruins, must once more be doled for California. Merchant of California has done 25 feet 9 inches this season and should win. If Jack should fail to get a fair takeoff this year, done would not be worth anything. While Tompkins has not done much this season at the meet, his luck will be in the event. He is figured for second place. He does not really rate the position by actual performances but his place second, stilling of California should be the third place man, providing he does not do better than expected and beat out Tompkins. The event looks to be 6-3 for California, if not better.

CARDINAL CLAIMS DISCUS Stanford boys claim to discuss throwers of merit, while California has been weak all season. According to recent season results, California has 16 Stanford figures to win the event. Court Majors of California has thrown up to 127 feet in practice recently and should beat Green of Stanford, who is claimed as the second best Cardinal. It seems to be a Stanford event, but California also has Jack Merchant.

THE DISCUS The pole vault is the most difficult of them all to predict. Art Wilcox of Stanford has been a steady performer as has Peterson of California. Both of these men are picked as better men than Green, who does 12 feet 7 at Stanford, sometimes. The event at the meet will be a close one. Still we might figure once optimistically from a Stanford view point and allow Wilcox the edge with Cottrell of California second and Green of Stanford third. Stanford can hardly hope for better than 6-3 out of the event and their two men will have to do as good as they have done on the farm tomorrow to win that many points.

Next Thursday Will Be Honor Day in Oakland

Put it in your date book that you are to spend next Thursday afternoon, April 22, at the Oakland ball park honoring the Oakland baseball club.

Although the rain threw a lot of gloom into the committee which planned a big home welcome to be tendered the Oaks yesterday, all the plans were spoiled by rain, the committee got together last night and commenced making new arrangements for a big day at the Oakland ball park next Thursday afternoon. The luncheon which was to be held at the Hotel Oakland will take place at noon after which the parade will follow and then the flag raising ceremonies and game will take place at the local park. A suggestion was made that the festivities be held next Sunday morning, but most of the boys on the committee said the affair would not be original without the annual luncheon.

All the same notables who had planned to help in yesterday's celebration have promised to be on the job next Thursday, so nothing that was to happen yesterday is going to be missed. President Billy McArthur of the Coast League had purchased a straw bonnet to wear in place of his derby at yesterday's affair, but he did not make it a Rubber Hat Day. But you can't get Frank's goat and he will be out working just as hard as ever to make next Thursday's affair as big a one as the one of yesterday would have been without the "Rubber Hat Day."

Chairman of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce Sports committee and has the promise of the Oakland and Berkeley Lions, Oakland Rotary Club, the Alhambra-Nile and others, to boost to make next Thursday the big day. Last night at the Oakland Elks, Cal Ewing tried to tell fellow members that it would be useless to try and make next Thursday a big one, but more than a hundred Elks told him that he was all wrong, because they were going to get out and do their share of work and that the crowd next Thursday will pack the park.

Clergymen Express Thanks for Lenten Aid

The Oakland Ministerial Association at its recent meeting at the Y. Lenten services recently held.

W. C. A. passed a resolution extending its thanks to the newspapers of the city, to the Y. Liberty theater and to the musicians who aided materially in promoting the Lenten services.

Community Service is also thanked for providing music for the service. Notice of the resolution has just been sent out by Fred W. Morrison, secretary of the association.

WOMEN SCORED FOR CRITICISM

Lack of an eight-hour-day law in the home is responsible for the dearth of servants and prohibition is keeping men out of work, according to Mrs. Helen Power, director of the Oakland office of the state employment bureau. Mrs. Power has set the conclusions of the housewives' leagues at naught by declaring that 16 cents is a fair price for milk, and challenges her sisters to boycott silk stockings until they have paid the reasonable costs of living. She was a speaker yesterday at the Thursday luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

While the omission of housewives to limit their servants' duties to eight hours is partly responsible for the lack of domestic help, Mrs. Power admits four additional reasons. The education of the present generation and the ambition of every woman to see her daughter in a higher position, falling off in immigration opportunities, treatment of servants in the homes, where frequently a domestic is forced to supplement her food from her private funds.

"The domestic is not the profiteer," asserts Mrs. Power. "Women bid against each other and raise the wages, which no worker will refuse." "The working people have more character than the leisure class," the labor expert offers as an axiom. "If a housewife would keep wages down to $30 a month for help and refuse to pay more by doing her own work, conditions would become more normal."

"Prohibition is keeping men out of work," explained Mrs. Power, "because when a man finishes a job he came to town and proceeded to celebrate. He soon went broke. Then he was obliged to go to work or starve. Nowadays he can keep a little money and so long as it lasts he will not work if he can help it." More than 1000 jobs daily are unfilled in the Oakland state employment bureau.

Mrs. Power figured milk costs on labor demands, offering the salaries of milkers who limited themselves to 25 cows a day at $100 a month with found; can washers at $5 a day; bookkeepers at $100 and upward a month, as indications of increased prices all along the line.

Rotary Club to Give Old Home Concert

A revival of the Old Home Songs concerts, which scored a popular success in 1915, has been arranged by the Oakland Rotary Club for Tuesday evening, May 11, at the Oakland Auditorium. The proceeds of the concert will go to the Boy Scout camp fund.

CHURCH WORKERS TO MEET. The Interchurch World Movement will be given impetus tonight in Alameda by a mass-meeting at the First Methodist church, where churchmen and laymen of all denominations will gather to hear the aims of the movement explained. Speakers will include Mr. H. W. Thomas, in charge of the work in this district; Rev. E. R. Dille, pastor of the church, and J. A. Eberly, in charge of the movement for Alameda.

Note Has No Value if No Consideration

A promissory note given by one contractor to another to prevent the latter from interfering with the former in carrying out a contract is not collectable, according to a ruling of Judge A. F. St. Sure in the suit of William T. Bond against M. J. Mealey and J. Collins.

The great seal of the Confederacy, made in England, reached Richmond in 1865, too late for use.

The celebrated Welsh harp was strung with gut and the Irish harp, like more ancient harps, with wire.

Is There No Relief From Fiery Skin Troubles?

Improper Treatment Makes This a Natural Question. Eczema, tetter, scalp eruptions, boils, pimples and other skin disorders are stubborn and hard to get rid of, because they are not given the proper sort of treatment. You must know that use of lotions, salves, soaps and ointments can make no impression on your trouble other than to afford some temporary relief. Then throw aside at once such makeshift treatment that can only reach the surface, and begin taking a remedy that goes direct to the drug store, get a bottle of S. S. S., and begin a thorough course of this fine old blood medicine that kills the germs that creep into the blood and cause all of your discomfort. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable compound, made from roots and herbs of recognized medicinal value. It so thoroughly cleanses the blood and builds up and strengthens the entire system that the germs of disease are eliminated, and then real relief comes. This fine old remedy is the same and sensible treatment for your skin disease, as you will find by giving it a trial. If your case should need special advice, it can be had with our cost to you, together with valuable literature, by writing to Chief Medical Adviser, 173 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.
